APPROVE PLANS OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

As evidence that the Ada Commercial Club is working along right lines, the News reproduces the following letter from one of the live wires of Oklahoma. It will be seen that Ada's methods are being noted favorably by outsiders. Following is the text of the letter:

"The Collier editorial, quoted in your local paper which you set me, puts the whole principle of the Oklahoma Development Commission into a nutshell. At least the agricultural program should command our co-operative attention and action for the present. When we make prosperity reign on the farms, factories, immigration and all other things will come.

I had a mighty good letter out long since from your secretary. You are certainly going after things in representative style. I am using his letter to show other cities and counties what you are doing at Ada and in Pontotoc county. Presume you will take a good delegation to Tulsa on the 21st.

MEXICANS BATTLE NEAR BORDER

MANY BULLETS STRIKE HOUSES ON AMERICAN SIDE DOING SOME DAMAGE.

Naco, Ariz., April 8.—Meeting the advancing state troops nearly one mile below Naco, Sonora, Gen. Ojeda's Federals fought today for three hours. Bullets entered the Arizona town of Naco.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the Federals retired to the town but were not pursued by the Constitutional soldiers. Following his previous method of strategy, Ojeda did not permit the state troops to open the attack. He met them half way and temporarily held back the advance with a heavy artillery fire. Naco is well fortified and if the state troops attack they must take the trenches by assault.

The fight was opened at 5:20 o'clock by Ojeda, whose 300 Federals met the advance of nearly 2,000 state troops with volleys from eight machine guns and two field guns.

Operating two of the Federal pieces were two American negroes.

Gen. Obregon's artillery equipment consisted of four rapid-fire pieces and one cannon.

For "Adequate Navy."

Washington, D. C., April 9.—An attempt to construe the democratic platform declaration in favor of an "adequate navy" is to be made at the convention of the Navy League, which will be held in this city tomorrow and Friday. One of the papers to be discussed is devoted to that subject, and others relate to such matters as "Strategic Value of the Panama Canal to the Navy," "The Consolidation of Navy Yards and Stations in the Light of Strategy and Economy," and "Wanted; A Naval Policy." The convention will conclude with a dinner on Friday night in honor of Secretary Daniels.

The Navy League of the United States was incorporated under the laws of the state of New York on January 2, 1903, its declared object being "to acquire and spread before the citizens of the United States, through branch organizations and otherwise information as to the condition of the naval forces and equipment of the United States, and to awaken public interest and co-operation in all matters tending to aid, improve and develop their efficiency." It is strictly non-partisan and men, women and children are eligible to membership.

Lincoln Statue Unveiled.

Webster City, Ia., April 9.—The life sized bronze statue of Abraham Lincoln, modeled by the sculptor George E. Caniere of Chicago and presented to the Webster City High School by Alexander Groves as a memorial to his son Harry, was formally unveiled today at the high school with appropriate ceremonies and in the presence of the donor, Mr. Groves, the teachers and students of the school and a number of invited friends of Mr. Groves. The Hon. L. A. McMurray, a close friend of the donor, made the presentation speech. J. W. Lee, representing the school board delivered the address of acceptance and Henry Miller, a high school student spoke for the high school. In the evening Dr. Gunsaulus of Chicago will deliver an address on Abraham Lincoln before a public gathering of the citizens.

WAYLAND HEIRS LOOKING FOR REPORTER

Oklahoma City, April 9.—That the heirs of J. A. Wayland, publisher of the Appeal to Reason, are determined on revenge for the printed statements that the late socialist editor committed suicide to prevent exposure is evident from the fact that private detectives have been employed to trail and locate Helmut Dueberg, formerly employed on one of the Oklahoma City newspapers and who is alleged to be responsible for the first publication of the story.

Dueberg after leaving Oklahoma City was employed as a detective working out of the United States district attorney's office at Topeka. It was in this capacity that he is said to have taken up the Wayland case and is said to have furnished the details upon which the story of the operation on the girl and her subsequent death was founded.

The story is said to have first appeared in a Los Angeles newspaper, widely known for its bitter opposition to every thing that pertains to Socialism and labor organizations. It is alleged that Dueberg is the author of this story and that he sold it to the California paper. This paper has a large circulation and it is claimed that it was through this medium that the story was spread over the country and gave Representative Veatch the first information on which he founded the story in the Demonstrator which caused the civil and criminal actions against him in Oklahoma county.

COMMITTEE REPORTS AGAINST DR. MAHR

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 8.—The report of the House General Investigating Committee presented today by Representative Hill of McAlester, as vice chairman, touching the department of the State Health Commissioner, brings charges against Dr. J. C. Mahr, the State Commissioner, and recommends his immediate removal from office.

The State Health Commissioner's position is filled by appointment by the Governor. Dr. Mahr was appointed by Gov. Haskell, during his term of office, and has continued to hold under the Cruce administration, however, without being reappointed by the present governor.

The committee finds that Dr. Mahr "has been guilty of defrauding the state out of money at various and sundry times, in amounts from $5 to $10 to $20 or $25 by collecting the same from his drug inspector, C. B. Bellamy."

The committee points out that Dr. Mahr had Dr. Bellamy charge the amounts stated to his "Bellamy's" expense account against the state in items of traveling expenses which were never incurred.

It is also found, according to the committee's report, that Dr. Mahr was guilty of defrauding the state out of money by using his departmental inspectors, their time and expense accounts for personal and political purposes of the commissioner. One occasion is mentioned of a trip taken by A. J. Emory of the department, at Dr. Mahr's direction, to Ponca City and other Northern Oklahoma towns to gather the proxies of stockholders in the Mid-Continent Life Insurance Company for Dr. Mahr's use in controlling a corporation election.

Another trip, taken by Mr. Bellamy the report charges was to urge country doctors to attend the meeting of the State Medical Association, and to get proxies so that Dr. Mahr might control the association.

Largest Loaf of Bread.

A recent issue of a New York newspaper contained the following item about a monster loaf of bread exhibited in that city.

What is said to be "the largest loaf of bread ever baked in America" was on exhibition in the Produce Exchange yesterday.

It weighed 300 pounds and was baked by Joe Mafzler of Kansas City. The loaf is 12 1-2 feet long by 3 feet wide and 6 feet deep, and represents about 309 ordinary loaves of bread.

The flour used amounted to one barrel, and its ingredients were composed of grades of flour from 150 mills in Kansas and Oklahoma.

The loaf was consigned to John McAuliffe, the produce agent of the New York Central lines here.

It was figured that at least thirty-two hams would be needed if the loaf were transformed into three thousand or more sandwiches.

Census figures for 1910 show that the percentage of illiterates in Oklahoma fell from 12.1 in 1900 to 5.6 in the ten years. Of the native white population only 3.5 per cent were illiterate. A strong argument for the maintenance of the present adequate school facilities.

ATTRACTS A BIG CROWD

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN THE DEAD LETTER AUCTION.

Lots Disposed Of at the Rate of 150 an Hour—Few Bring More Than $2—Bargain Seekers Crowded Into a Long Room.

At the rapid rate of 150 lots an hour, auctioneers the other day, disposed of dead letter packages at the first day of the sale in the rooms of C. G. Sloan & Co., 1407 Q street. The packages were not sold, "sight unseen," but it was hardly more than a fleeting glance given to prospective buyers.

Sealed packages, as disposed of at former dead letter sales, were ruled by the United States attorney for the District of Columbia to be a violation of the District of Columbia lottery laws. The postmaster-general directed that the contents of all packages be exhibited at the sale.

About 500 bargain seekers were crowded into the long room. About half this number found seats, while the others stood far away from the auctioneer in the back or on the stairway, on the side of the room, leaning over the rail. About 300 catalogues were distributed to do duty in the throng.

Not more than half a dozen of the 300 packages sold before noon brought as much as $2 each. The auctioneers accepted only an initial bid of 50 cents, and permitted ten-cent advances. At times the bidding was spirited. Those in the rear of the room had some difficulty in receiving recognition.

No description of the contents of the package was given by the auctioneer. "Here is something fine," or "this is a bright lot," was the occasional comment, without especial significance as regarded the offering.

Two supposedly fine razors, a pair of white suede long gloves, a Marseille bed spread and two assorted packages hit the high spots on prices brought. Not one of them, however, was sold for more than $2.50.

A heterogeneous variety of materials was the result of Uncle Sam's collection during the year of articles lost in the mail. There were powder cloths, playing cards, opera glasses, watches, laces, shoes, slippers, children's clothing, lingerie, feathers, furs and furbelows, haberdashery, silks, satins, woollens, calicos, cottons, etc., in the piece and made up; pictures and frames, embroideries, crochets, appliques, stationery, jewelry, musical instruments, music records for gramophone and sheet music, tobacco in its varied forms, and pipes and cigar holders, fountain pens and typewriter ribbons and a miscellany impossible to enumerate.

MRS. ANTHONY DONS GEM

Capital Society Sees the Famous New Jewel Sensation and $100,000 Necklace.

Mrs. Charles H. Anthony from Muncie, Ind., who has been referred to as the "human sunburst," wore a dazzling array of diamonds at the White House the other night during the congressional reception. Mrs. Anthony was the originator of the diamond heels so many society women are wearing now and she has passed on to other sartorial glories. The piece de resistance of her diamond display the other night was her famous diamond armist.

A new feature was a diamond necklace made of superb stones, which cost $100,000. The loops in her beautiful gown of champagne satin crusted with seed pearls and crystals were caught with diamond-studded safety pins.

Mrs. Anthony admitted that all her priceless imported lingerie was fastened with the same precious gems. She carried a huge white ostrich fan mounted on real ivory sticks imported from India. Naturally Mrs. Anthony was the cynosure of all eyes and soon earned the appellation of the diamond lady.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a White House reception watched the dignitaries of the house and senate bid official farewell to President and Mrs. Taft.

Many of the congressional people stayed for the dancing, which began at eleven o'clock. A picturesque pair was Uncle Joe Cannon and his pretty debutante granddaughter, Virginia Le Seure, who danced a merry round of dances and even ventured upon a mild form of the turkey trot.

Had His Warning.

"When are you going to Trenton to see Governor Wilson?" asked a friend of Senator Shively of Indiana the other day.

"I am not going," replied the senator, with emphasis and brevity.

"Why not?" persisted the inquisitive one.

"Well," answered Mr. Shively, "I have had my warning. Lee O'Gorman went to Trenton and came back with appendicitis. Hoke Smith went over and returned with lockjaw. I will stay away from Trenton."

COST IS $300,000,000

Subway Planned for Gotham Will Rival Canal in Price.

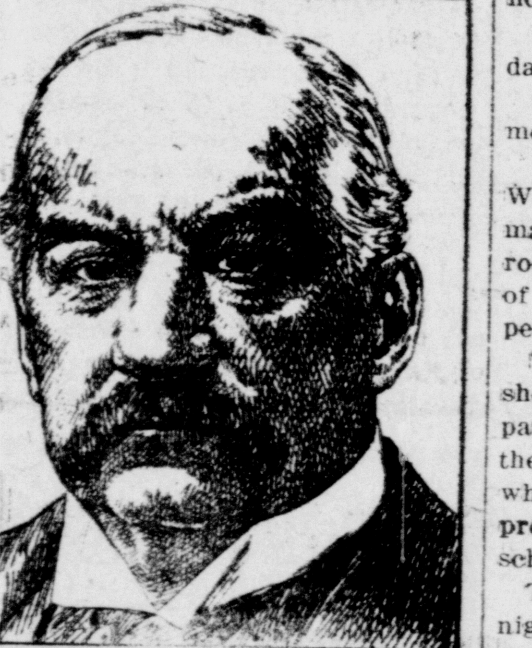

Bore by Which New York City Will Be Undersized With Be Three Hundred and Thirty-four Miles in Length.

New York.—This is the story of the biggest chore ever undertaken by a city.

In writing of New York's new subway system one may as well dip into the pot of superlatives at once. It will cost approximately $300,000,000—which is almost dollar for dollar what the actual digging of the Panama canal will cost the nation. It will be 234 miles long, cobwebbed through 316 square miles of the city's five boroughs.

The largest bond issue ever made upon a single corporate undertaking has been financed by J. P. Morgan—this country's greatest banker—and 280 invited associates, to provide for its building and equipment. This is the greatest group of bankers, both in mere numbers and in golden billions, ever assembled under a single leadership for a private purpose. The $170,000,000 bond issue which they will handle only covers a little more than one-half—speaking in millions—of the total cost of the undertaking. At the end of fifty years the new subway system may pay an enormous profit to the city of New York or may have thrust that unfortunate municipality into a deficit of $170,000,000. Both views—and every sort of intermediate view—are held violently and convulsively by men of equal sincerity, intelligence and conservatism.

The only other undertaking financed by a city which comes within shouting distance of the subway plan for sheer, brazen immensity is the Catskill waterworks system, which New York city is building to a modest, depressing sort of way, so that one hardly hears of it. When this is completed, which will be in three years or so, its chain of reservoirs will be fed by 646 miles of water shed. The 15 by 17 foot tunnel, which will deliver 500,000,000 gallons of water a day to New York city, will be 92 miles long. Under Storm King and the Hudson river

J. Pierpont Morgan.

It will be 1,100 feet deep. For miles it will range between 700 and 800 feet below the city's doorsteps. It will cost $200,000,000 or thereabouts, and will supply the needs of the city for the next generation, just as it is hoped that the new subway can be stretched to fit the straphangers' demands for half a century. The two enterprises, forced by conditions upon the city, will cost $500,000,000.

It should be noted that New York's net funded debt is $794,949,404—assessed against 5,000,000 people—on which the annual interest is $35,473,685. The total debt of the nation is $1,027,575,000, on which interest amounting only to $22,787,000 is paid, and which is shared by 96,000,000 people.

Superlatives seem to be justified. The present subway was built to carry 400,000 people daily. It is carrying two and one-half times that number, thanks to the straphanging genius of the New Yorker.

Paris Woman Recites Her Experience as Seeker of Work in Metropolitan Daily Newspaper.

Paris.—Some of the opportunities a young woman has of earning her living are shown by Mlle. Bertha Delaunay, who in "Le Matin" describes her search for employment.

At a well known dressmaker's in the Rue de la Paix she was informed that for transacting correspondence in English, French and Spanish she would be paid £6 a month and given two bonuses a year, but she would have to wait some time before the position was vacant.

A milliner offered her £3 a month, her luncheon and a small percentage on sales.

She applied for a situation as interpreter at a well-known hotel in the Champs Elysees. Her hours were to be from 8 a. m. until midnight. She was to take her meals with the hall porter, and her salary would be £7 a month.

At a popular beer house Mlle. Delaunay was promised five guineas a month for a fourteen-hour day. As an inducement to accept the situation she was informed that the food was good and plentiful and that she could have as much beer as she wanted.

Economical Ironing

To iron economically you must not waste heat. Ironing with ordinary flat irons is very wasteful of heat; most of the heat goes up the kitchen chimney; a lot of it is wasted in charring the ironing pad and in scorching the clothes. Ironing with a is quite different—all the heat is in the iron ready to go into the pieces ironed instead of going into the room or up the kitchen chimney. None of it is wasted.

To use only the amount of heat actually needed for ironing, be it either heavy damp pieces or laces, embroidery or other light goods is real economy. That's why Hot Point Irons are used in thousands of homes throughout our country.

WHAT SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. Martin Tells About a Painful Experience that Might Have Ended Seriously.

Rivesville, W. Va.—Mrs. Dora Martin, in a letter from Rivesville, writes: "For three years, I suffered with womanly troubles, and had pains in my back and side. I was nervous and could not sleep at night.

The doctor could not help me. He said I would have to be operated on before I could get better. I thought I would try using Cardui.

Now, I am entirely well. I am sure Cardui saved my life. I will never be without Cardui in my home. I recommend it to my friends."

For fifty years, Cardui has been relieving pain and distress caused by womanly trouble. It will surely help you. It goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause.

WHAT OUR HOUSEHOLDS COST

Ten Billion Dollars a Year is Figure Arrived at by Professor Muensterberg.

New York.—The women of the United States spend nearly $10,000,000,000 a year for maintaining the households of the country, according to Prof. Hugo Muensterberg of Harvard in a statement which is causing much discussion among New York women just now. In woman's hands, therefore, is the greatest single business of the United States, for the vast expenditures of the government itself are insignificant beside such a tremendous budget.

The only rival of housekeeping as an industry is agriculture. The total value of the products of agriculture in the United States is also about $10,000,000,000 a year. But it should be remembered that that figure is for the output, the finished product of the farms, while the expenditure of the housewives is only for the raw materials from which by their own labor and management they create the real values of the home—a finished product which can hardly be estimated in financial terms.

The Harvard professor points out that, with such a tremendous business undertaking on their hands, the women of the country do not fit themselves for their highly technical and professional duties with "that deeper knowledge of the material, its sources, its effects, its characteristics, which would be demanded of any other large economic transactions." He laments the bargain craze, and urges more care, not for the dress of the housekeeper, but for the dress of the home, which, he says, is even more important.

For all which remarks the women of New York are expressing their thanks to the learned professor and quietly wondering among themselves what kind of home he is used to seeing in the neighborhood of Harvard square.

HIDES $500 IN HER HAIR

Ruse of Absent Housewife's Sister Saves Roll of Cash, and Thief Avoids Silver.

Pittsburgh.—A daring burglar was outwitted by a woman's sagacity and cunning after he had entered the residence of Daniel J. Hurley, at No. 7950 Kedron avenue, Homewood, seeking a big sum of money, which he evidently knew was somewhere in the house. The burglar, however, was neatly tricked by Miss Katherine Scanlon, a twenty-five-year-old sister of Mrs. Hurley, who secreted a roll of $500 in her hair, which she deftly coiled in a fetching coiffure on her head.

Shortly after midnight Miss Scanlon, who had been left at home with the two-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hurley, while they went out to a reception, heard some one downstairs in the dining-room. Going to the head of the stairs, she asked who was there.

When she heard heavy footsteps ascending the stairway the plucky young girl hurried into a bedroom, got the roll of money and hid it in her beautiful hair, which she had been arranging preparatory to retiring.

When the burglar entered the room Miss Scanlon coolly asked him what he wanted, and he replied:

"Money; I know it's here, too!" The young woman declared the money had been paid out that day; but the burglar was not satisfied, and searched her and forced her to take all the clothes from the baby in his efforts to locate the money. Finally turning to Miss Scanlon, the robber said: "There's a lot of silverware and stuff here, but I was after money. I don't want to harm you and the kid, so I'll say goodbye."

PLAN TO AID CAR EMPLOYES

Offer to Inaugurate Co-operative System Whereby Workers May Purchase Necessities at Cost.

New York.—The inauguration of a co-operative plan for all employees of the New York subway and elevated lines and the surface lines of the New York Railways company which will enable them to purchase at cost the necessities of life, was announced by Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company and affiliated lines.

An increase of wages amounting to $150,000 a year also was announced, affecting about 3,500 men on the surface lines.

After the approval of the employees is received a store will be established stocked as a general grocery and meat market. It is declared that a saving of from 20 to 30 per cent. would result to the employees.

NEGRO FIRES A FREIGHT CAR

Starving Captive Starts Flames to Obtain His Freedom—Firemen Rescue Him.

Roanoke, Va.—Apparently none the worse for his trying experience, James Sparks, a negro, told the police how he had spent three days and nights in a locked freight car without food or water and then set fire to his prison in desperation in the hope that the blaze would attract attention and that he would be rescued.

Sparks entered the car at Montvale and almost immediately the car, loaded with lumber, was locked and sealed. Starving and almost frozen, Sparks set his traveling prison in flames here and the fire department was called. When the car door was broken down the captive fell out. He was too weak to stand unaided.

True Love.

Love is the purification of the heart from itself; it strengthens and ennobles the character, gives a higher motive and a nobler aim to every action of life, and makes both man and woman strong, noble, and courageous; and the power to love truly and devotedly is the noblest gift with which a human being can be endowed; but it is a sacred fire that must not be burnt to idols.

NORMAL NOTES

By MOIKE CASSIDY

Miss Helen Meyers, a member of the Senior play that will be given in about 3 weeks has gone to Ahloso to teach the remainder of this week in her mother's absence.

Too bad Pauline! But some thought it was too cold to have the base ball game this afternoon. We are anxious indeed to play those Indians from Sacred Heart because they always put out a good team. In fact, they come very near beating us sometimes. The game will be either Friday or Saturday so watch for further notice.

Always putting on a little "dog" at East Central. Prof. E. C. Wilson is in possession of a brand new desk in the library. This is one of the things we have been needing a long time.

New students are enrolling every day five new ones yesterday. From now on we will begin to increase as the schools of the country are closing very rapidly now.

The best thing ever pulled off in Ada not "barring" anything, will be pulled off by the band boys in the near future. It will be an old time "nigger minstrel." They began practicing last night in earnest.

To Elect Suffragan Bishop.

Boston, Mass., April 9.—A suffragan bishop for the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts is to be elected at the annual diocesan convention which opened this morning in the Cathedral church of St. Paul in this city. At the opening of the convention, immediately after organization, the annual sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody headmaster of the Croton school. The sermon was followed by the administration of the Holy Communion.

The election of the suffragan bishop will take place tomorrow morning. It is expected that only two names will be brought to the attention of the convention, those of the Very Rev. Samuel G. Babcock, archdeacon of the Massachusetts diocese and the Rev. Dr. Herman Page, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chicago.

A call has been issued for a statement from both national and state banks showing their condition April 4.

SAVED HIS SON

From Constitutional Decline

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter: Mr. Richard Rush of Columbus, Ind., says: "I believe I am indebted to the valuable medicinal properties of Vinol for the health of my little son Dale. He had a severe attack of whooping cough and measles, which affected his lungs and general constitution. We tried several other remedies without benefit, then commenced using Vinol and I take pleasure in acknowledging my confidence in its restorative and reconstructive virtues, for my little son is the picture of health now, all due to the use of Vinol."

This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not do all we claim. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.

SENATORS BY DIRECT ELECTION

—Senators by direct election... Washington, April 8.—Direct election of United States senators became one of the provisions of the constitution today by Connecticut's ratification of the amendment to that effect. Thirty-six states, the requisite three-fourths of all the union, now have approved the change. It remains only for the governors of all states which have acted favorably to formally notify Secretary Bryan and for him to issue a proclamation announcing the change.

PONTOTOC COUNTY DOCTORS HOLD MEETING

The Pontotoc County Medical Association held its regular meeting Monday with a good attendance and with splendid interest manifested. This organization is growing in interest among the members of the medical fraternity and is gaining in popularity, owing to the instructive nature of the meetings.

At the meeting Monday, besides the local physicians, the following were present, Drs. F. Harrison, Stonewall; J. T. Miller, Sasakwa; S. M. Richey, Francis; A. G. Austell, Center.

A. L. Beck returned this morning from a business trip to Kansas City and St. Louis. He reports the Mississippi and tributary rivers bawful and rain still falling. Looks very much like serious trouble for the people on the lower stretches of the big river.

Open to Question.

The head of a certain household is one of those Christians whose preaching always is in advance of his practice. One day he asked a beautiful grace before beginning a meal, then found fault with everything on the table. The meal concluded, he returned thanks with characteristicunction. The youngest daughter of the family pulled at her mother's sleeve. "Which does he believe, mamma, what he tells us or what he tells God?"

The word from Otis Weaver received this morning, was not as encouraging as had been hoped for. His condition is seemingly critical yet.

Maintained Belief in Ignorance.
Opposition to state education in the past was due largely to a belief that too much learning was not good for the masses. The worthy Hannah More even, who was one of the most earnest supporters of the movement for the establishment of schools for the poor in England, had very definite ideas as to how far the children should be educated. The curriculum, she declared, should comprise only reading the Bible and the catechism, and "such coarse works as may fit the children for servants," adding decisively, "I allow of no writing for the poor."

When Antelope Was Plentiful.
Transcontinental travelers, who nowadays in their journey through the west seldom see any game larger than a prairie dog or jack rabbit, will be interested in this item reprinted from the Rocky Mountain Herald of some fifty years ago: "Passengers report that antelope have never been seen so numerous as now. Herds of antelope larger than any flock of sheep in the world are frequently spoken of."

Man's Superiority Early Shown.
Rude sculpture dating back, scientific authorities believe, at least 200,000 years, show that primitive man made representations of other creatures at a stage of human development when the conditions of existence were little in advance of those prevailing among the higher mammals of that period. But no other denizen of the earth manifested the slightest desire or ability to make images of anything.

As It Is Talked in Boyville.
Two Port Scott boys were quarreling. "I'll knock your block off if you bother me," one of them said. "No you won't," replied the other, "you can't do it. You ain't man enough." "Well, maybe not," answered the first belligerent, "but I'm just tellin' you that I'm dern fool enough to try it if you give me any more of that talk."

Stretched for a Gallop.
John, aged four, was walking along the street with his mother and they passed a butcher shop. John stopped to look at a little pig that was hanging in the window. He turned to his mother and said: "Look at the way that pig has his feet spread out. I bet they shot him while he was running."

Some Spectacle.
"Strange as it may seem to you," said Mrs. Lapsling, with pardonable pride, "I was a good speller when I was a little girl and went to school. Once I spelled the whole school down, and for one time in my life, anyway, I was the dinosaur of all eyes."

Better Than Drugs.
For people who are severely troubled with the inability to sleep soundly, some diversion is needed, a party, an entertainment or theater. Reading poets and philosophers will help, and very often a hot drink will prove a great help in inducing a natural and restful sleep. But above all, breathe deeply of good pure air just before retiring, and have your sleeping room well ventilated.

Essential Thing.
"Do wust thing about arithmetic," said Uncle Eben, "is dat a whole lot o' folks gits de idea dat any kind o' figgerin' is all right if dey kin finish wif a number dat has a dollar mark in front of it."

Silenced the Tourist.
"Have you resided long in this town?" asked a tourist of the oldest inhabitant. "Yes," he replied, "a long time. D'ye see that mountain over yonder? Well, that was there when came here." The tourist traveled on.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial results.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be returned if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Ada, Okla.—adv.

WOMAN WRITES VOTE POEM

Verse May Aid Gladys Hinckley to Win Inez Milholland's Laureate; Male Imbecile Hunted.

Washington.—Miss Inez Milholland, you had better watch out. Miss Gladys Hinckley, Miss Milholland's closest rival for the title of the most "beautiful American suffragist," has enlisted poetry to her aid in the contest. She writes it herself. It is all about votes for women, and doctrines of that cause.

Speaking to her sister suffragist, Miss Hinckley says:

"Dream no more of a Guinevere, Or Lady Alice Vere de Vere. Times have changed, and now the women Militant rise, demanding rights. Man is not on the defensive. For he force has, and might makes right."

In arguing for the cause, she says of the suffrage tenets:

"Help the shop girls keep to honor. Change the code so badly balanced. If you think our role domestic, Let our office be domestic;

Civic cleansing, gutter cleaning. Let us dust and sweep the cities. Woman's sphere can be domestic. In politics for all the nation.

Let us try, and if we blunder Help us, for you long have hurt us. Chivalry of noblest order. Now can grow if men and women Stand together, understanding."

FINDS MYSTERY OF THE DEEP

Steamer Discovers Bark but Fate of Captain and Crew Is Like That of Celeste's.

Newport News, Va.—Another mystery of the deep, virtually paralleling the disappearance of the crew of the schooner Marie Celeste years ago, came to port with the British tank steamer Roumanian.

The Marie Celeste was found at sea with a pot boiling in the galley, its captain's papers on the cabin table and every indication that men were aboard within a few hours of its discovery. Nothing, however, ever was heard of the skipper or crew.

The story of the Norwegian bark Remittent, with a crew of six, is equally strange. The Roumanian sighted the Remittent drifting near the Azores and took it in tow.

The boat's deck planks, once hoisted to a glistening white, bore the marks of many feet, but there was no one aboard and nothing to explain the disappearance of the master and crew. In the cabin the lockfast places were undisturbed; charts and papers were secure. In the breaker there was fresh water; salt junk and biscuits were in the stores. A mainsail and two jibs were snugly furled and lifeboats swung in the davits.

In a gale 100 miles off Cape Henry, Captain Claridge lost the Remittent. No other ship has reported it since. The Remittent was commanded by Captain Torgersen and sailed from Rio Grande do Sul Oct. 25 for Liverpool.

THIEF BETRAYED BY A PATCH

Seattle Woman Recognizes Handiwork She Put on Trousers and Bandit Is Taken.

Seattle, Wash.—Recognition last week by Mrs. William J. Mayorkick of a patch she had placed on the leg of her husband's trousers resulted in the arrest of two men and the recovery from the home of one of them a wagonload of articles stolen from Seattle homes. Charles Castro, from whose home the articles were recovered, was wearing the clothes, and sat opposite Mrs. Mayorkick in a street car. When she questioned his right to the clothes he abused her and men passengers took him into custody and delivered him at police headquarters. Mayorkick's name was written on a pocket lining.

The other man arrested is Tony Donio, who was found in Castro's home. The police say he is a member of a "black hand" organization that has been terrorizing Seattle Italians and that he is wanted in Idaho to answer criminal charges.

GRIND OF THE COUNTY COURT

County court is still grinding on the criminal docket. Two or three mistrials have resulted and some cases were dismissed.

John Hudson of Fitzhugh was assessed fines and costs amounting to almost $200 on a charge of gambling.

The case of Roy Sanders, tried for damaging a school house, was dismissed after the evidence was in.

Two cases against Dr. F. Z. Holley, charging violation of the prohibition laws, were dismissed on motion of the county attorney after W. L. Anderson, the principal state's witness had testified in one, and the county attorney then had Anderson placed under arrest on a charge of perjury, alleging that he had repudiated statements made to the grand jury.

This afternoon Deputy Sheriff L. M. Chandler was fined $50 for contempt of court and for carrying a gun in the court room when not on duty. It was said that Attorney Bolen in his address to the jury made some derogatory remark about Chandler and that the latter remarked in an audible tone that it was a d-d lie. The case of W. W. Eaton of Stone-wall, charged with violating the prohibition law, was completed about 2 o'clock and the jury was out when the reporter was last at the court house.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommend it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle.
